

Programme	LIFELONG LEARNING
Subprogramme	COMENIUS
Action Category	MOBILITY
Action	COMENIUS Assistantships (host schools)
Objectives and description of the action	Schools can apply to host a Comenius assistant, a future teacher of any subject. While the assistantship offers the Comenius assistant the opportunity to gain teaching experience in another European country, the school receives additional support for activities such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• assisting in classroom teaching, supporting pupils' group work and project-based teaching</li> <li>• introducing or reinforcing the European dimension</li> <li>• implementing CLIL (Content and Language Integrated Learning) by teaching a subject in a foreign language</li> <li>• improving the pupils' comprehension and expression in foreign languages, enriching the language offer at the school</li> <li>• developing and implementing projects e. g. eTwinning, Comenius School Partnerships or Comenius Regio Partnerships</li> <li>• working with pupils with special educational needs</li> </ul> Host schools must designate a teacher to supervise the assistant, look after his or her welfare, monitor progress and act as a contact person during the assistantship. Assistants should be fully integrated into school life. They are not to work as full-time teachers but should assist in teaching and other school activities (max 12 to 16 teaching units/hours of school based activity are recommended). The host school and the assistant must draw up an agreement which specifies the lessons to be taught, the projects to be completed, etc. The host school should follow the advice given in the Good practice guide for the host schools and assistants available at Europa website: http://ec.europa.eu/education/comenius/doc994_en.htm . The host school should report on the assistantship to its National Agency. Comenius assistants may be based at more than one school, either to give extra variety to their work or to meet the particular needs of neighbouring schools. Assistants may not work in more than 3 schools during their assistantship. Host schools are selected by the National Agencies in their home country.

Comment on participants:	Assistant and host school must be from two different participating countries, one of them being an EU Member State.
Award criteria	1. Quality of the mobility (assistantship) The host school provides convincing reasons to host an assistant and sets out clearly the curricular and extra-curricular activities to be carried out by the assistant. The description of the planned assistantship established by the host school is clear and reasonable. The host school explains clearly how the assistantship will be monitored and, if applicable, how the assistant's workload will be managed if the assistant is shared with other institutions.
	2. Impact and relevance The expected impact and concrete outcomes that the host school wishes to achieve are clearly defined. The school gives a clear view of the intercultural experience the assistant can bring to the school.
